What's the Catch?

We get this question ALL THE TIME.

And the answer is: There is no catch. Not a single one.

The only reason why we are able to offer these premium products at normal prices is because everything we sell are Unauthorized Authentic (UA). That means they were made with the same exact materials as the products you see in retail stores, even with the same exact packaging, laces, zip ties or accessories (if any). Yes, it's truly that good. In order to fully understand this principle (and make sure that our products are 100% the same), you would need to know how the industry works behind the scenes.

- Pairing an austere color palette with a ventilated build is the Adidas Yeezy 500 'Ash Grey.' A neutral greyscale finish is applied to the lifestyle runner, highlighted by an open mesh upper with premium cow suede overlays. A rubber-wrap mudguard gives the shoe abrasion-resistant durability, while 3M reflective piping offers added visibility in low-light conditions. It's built on an adiPRENE+ midsole, rendered in a dark taupe finish and featuring popular construction modeled after Adidas retro Feet You Wear technology.
