OMEGA SA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

THE INDIVIDUAL, BUSINESS ENTITY, OR UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATION
d/b/a THE E-COMMERCE STORE NAMES IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE "A," Defendant.

SEALED ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER RESTRAINING TRANSFER OF ASSETS

THIS CAUSE came before this Court on Plaintiff Omega SA's ("Plaintiff") Ex Parte Application for Entry of Temporary Restraining Order and Order Restraining Transfer of Assets (the "Motion"), (ECF No. 8). This Court has reviewed the Motion, pertinent portions of the record, and applicable law and is otherwise fully advised in the premises. After careful consideration, the Court GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion for a temporary restraining order as stated herein.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff moves ex parte for entry of a temporary restraining order against Defendant, the Individual, Business Entity, or Unincorporated Association doing business as the e-commerce stores identified on Schedule "A" to the Complaint ("Defendant"), and an entry of an order restraining the financial accounts used by Defendant, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 65, The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), and this Court's inherent authority. Plaintiff is the owner of the federally registered trademarks (the "Omega Marks") identified in the Declaration of Antoine Haller (Haller Decl., ECF No. 8-1 at 4.) The Omega Marks are used in connection with the manufacture and distribution of high-quality goods in the categories identified above. (See id. ¶¶ 4–5.)

Defendant, by operating the Internet based e-commerce stores under the seller names identified on Schedule “A” hereto, has advertised, promoted, offered for sale, or sold goods using what Plaintiff has determined to be counterfeits, infringements, reproductions, and/or colorable imitations of the Omega Marks (the “Counterfeit Products”). (See Haller Decl. ¶¶ 14–18; Declaration of Virgilio Gigante in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Temporary Restraining Order (“Gigante Decl.”) ¶ 2, ECF No. 8-2; Declaration of Kathleen Burns in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Temporary Restraining Order (“Burns Decl.”) ¶¶ 4–6, ECF No. 8-4.)

Plaintiff has submitted sufficient evidence showing Defendant has infringed the Omega Marks. (See Haller Decl. ¶¶ 4, 17–18.) Defendant is not now, nor has it ever been, authorized or licensed to use, reproduce, or make counterfeits, reproductions, and/or colorable imitations of the Omega Marks. (Id. ¶ 14.)

Plaintiff’s counsel retained Invisible Inc. (“Invisible”), a licensed private investigative firm, to investigate the promotion and sale of counterfeit and infringing versions of Plaintiff’s products by Defendant and to document the available payment account data for receipt of funds paid to Defendant for the sale of counterfeit versions of Plaintiff’s branded products. (See Haller Decl. ¶ 15; Burns Decl. ¶ 3; Gigante Decl. ¶ 2.) Invisible accessed the Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the seller names identified on Schedule “A” hereto (the “Selling E-commerce Store Names”), placed an order for the purchase of a watch from each e-commerce store bearing counterfeits of one of Plaintiff’s trademarks at issue, and requested the watches ordered from forty-three (43) of Defendant’s Selling E-commerce Store Names be shipped to addresses in the Southern District of Florida. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4.) Each order was processed entirely online, and upon completing each order, and upon proceeding to checkout via PayPal, Invisible was automatically redirected to the PayPal checkout page to finalize payment. (See id. ¶ 5.) Upon reviewing the PayPal merchant data, Invisible discovered that Defendant was using one of the payment intermediary e-commerce store names identified on Schedule “A” hereto (the “Intermediary E-commerce Store Names”) to complete the checkout process for the watches ordered via the Selling Ecommerce Store Names (the Selling E-commerce Store Names and Intermediary E-commerce Store Names are collectively referred to herein as the “E-commerce Store Names”). (See id.) Following the submission of the orders, Invisible documented the information for finalizing payment for the watches ordered using Defendant’s financial account information, as identified on Schedule “A.” (See Burns Decl. ¶ 6 and Composite Exhibit “1”.) At the conclusion of the process, the detailed web pages and images of the products bearing the Omega Marks ordered via Defendant’s E-commerce Store Names were sent to Plaintiff’s representative for review. (See Gigante Decl. ¶ 2.) Plaintiff’s representative reviewed the Omega branded products offered for sale and ordered by Invisible and determined the products were non-genuine, unauthorized versions of Plaintiff’s products. (See Haller Decl. ¶¶ 16–18.)

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To obtain a temporary restraining order, a party must demonstrate “(1) a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) that irreparable injury will be suffered if the relief is not granted; (3) that the threatened injury outweighs the harm the relief would inflict on the non-movant; and (4) that the entry of the relief would serve the public interest.” Schiavo ex. rel Schindler v. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 1225-26 (11th Cir. 2005). Additionally, a court may only issue a temporary restraining order without notice to the adverse party or its attorney if:

(A) specific facts in an affidavit or a verified complaint clearly show that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition [and] (B) the movant’s attorney certifies in writing any efforts made to give notice and the reasons why it should not be required.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b)(1). Ex parte temporary restraining orders “should be restricted to serving their underlying purpose of preserving the status quo and preventing irreparable harm just so long as is necessary to hold a hearing and no longer.” Granny Goose Foods, Inc. v. Brotherhood of Teamsters & Auto Truck Drivers Local No. 70 of Alameda Cnty, 415 U.S. 423, 439 (1974).

III. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The declarations Plaintiff submitted in support of its Motion support the following conclusions of law:

A. Plaintiff has a strong probability of proving at trial that (1) consumers are likely to be confused by Defendant's advertisement, promotion, sale, offer for sale, and/or distribution of goods bearing and/or using counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of the Omega Marks, and that (2) the products Defendant is selling and promoting for sale are copies of Plaintiff's products that bear and/or use copies of the Omega Marks;

B. Because of the infringement of the Omega Marks, Plaintiff is likely to suffer immediate and irreparable injury if a temporary restraining order is not granted. The following specific facts, as set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint, Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, and accompanying declarations, demonstrate that immediate and irreparable loss, damage, and injury will result to Plaintiff and to consumers before Defendant can be heard in opposition unless Plaintiff's request for ex parte relief is granted:

1. Defendant owns or controls Internet based e-commerce stores operating under its E-commerce Store Names which advertise, promote, offer for sale, and sell products bearing and/or using counterfeit and infringing trademarks in violation of Plaintiff's rights;
2. There is good cause to believe that more counterfeit and infringing products bearing and/or using Plaintiff's trademarks will appear in the marketplace; that consumers are likely to be misled, confused, and/or disappointed by the quality of these products; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its genuine products; and
3. There is good cause to believe that if Plaintiff proceeds on notice to Defendant on this Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Defendant can change the ownership or modify e-commerce store and private messaging account data and content, redirect consumer traffic to other e-commerce store names and private messaging accounts, change payment accounts, and transfer assets and ownership of the E-commerce Store Names, thereby thwarting Plaintiff's ability to obtain meaningful relief.

C. The balance of potential harm to Defendant in restraining its trade in counterfeit and infringing branded goods if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its reputation, and its goodwill as a manufacturer and distributor of high-quality goods if such relief is not issued.

D. The public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order to protect Plaintiff's trademark interests and protect the public from being defrauded by the palming off of counterfeit goods as Plaintiff's genuine goods.

E. Under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), Plaintiff may be entitled to recover, as an equitable remedy, the illegal profits gained through Defendant's distribution and sales of goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of the Omega Marks. See Reebok Int'l, Ltd. v. Marnatech Enters., Inc., 970 F.2d 552, 559 (9th Cir. 1992) (quoting Fuller Brush Prods. Co. v. Fuller Brush Co., 299 F.2d 772, 777 (7th Cir. 1962) ("An accounting of profits under § 1117(a) is not synonymous with an award of monetary damages: '[a]n accounting for profits . . . is an equitable remedy subject to the principles of equity.'")).

F. Requesting equitable relief "invokes the district court's inherent equitable powers to order preliminary relief, including an asset freeze, in order to assure the availability of permanent relief." Levi Strauss & Co., 51 F.3d at 987 (11th Cir. 1995) (citing Federal Trade Commission v. United States Oil & Gas Corp., 748 F.2d 1431, 1433-34 (11th Cir. 1984)).

G. Considering the inherently deceptive nature of the counterfeiting business, and the likelihood that Defendant has violated federal trademark laws, Plaintiff has good reason to believe Defendant will hide or transfer its ill-gotten assets beyond the jurisdiction of this Court unless those assets are restrained.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that pursuant to 15 U.S.C. section 1116, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, 28 U.S.C. section 1651(a), and the Court's inherent authority, Plaintiff's Motion, (ECF No. 8), is GRANTED as follows:

(1) Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with Defendant having notice of this Order are temporarily restrained as follows:

- a. From manufacturing, importing, advertising, promoting, offering to sell, selling, distributing, or transferring any products bearing and/or using the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks, other than those actually manufactured or distributed by Plaintiff; and
- b. From secreting, concealing, destroying, selling off, transferring, or otherwise disposing of: (i) any products, not manufactured or distributed by the Plaintiff, bearing and/or using the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks; (ii) any evidence relating to the manufacture, importation, sale, offer for sale, distribution, or transfer of any products bearing and/or using the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks; or (iii) any assets or other financial accounts subject to this Order, including inventory assets, in the actual or constructive possession of, or owned, controlled, or held by, or subject to access by, Defendant, including, but not limited to, any assets held by or on behalf of Defendant.

(2) Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue the use of the Omega Marks or any confusingly similar trademarks, on or in connection with all e-commerce stores owned and operated, or controlled by Defendant, including the Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names;

(3) Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue the use of the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks on within domain name extensions, metatags or other markers within website source code, from use on any webpage (including as the title of any web page), from any advertising links to other websites, from search engines' databases or cache memory, and any other form of use of such terms which is visible to a computer user or serves to direct computer searches to e-commerce stores registered, owned, or operated by Defendant, including the Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names;

(4) Defendant shall not transfer ownership of the Internet based e-commerce stores under its E-commerce Store Names during the pendency of this action, or until further Order of the Court;

(5) Defendant shall preserve copies of all computer files relating to the use of any of the E-commerce Store Names and shall take all steps necessary to retrieve computer files relating to the use of the E-commerce Store Names that may have been deleted before the entry of this Order;

(6) Upon Plaintiff's request, the privacy protection service for any of the E-commerce Store Names for which the registrant uses such privacy protection service to conceal the registrant's identity and contact information is ordered to disclose to Plaintiff the true identity and contact information of that registrant;

(7) The domain name registrars for the E-commerce Store Names shall immediately assist in changing the registrar of record for the E-commerce Store Names to a holding account with a registrar of Plaintiff's choosing (the "New Registrar"), excepting any such domain names which such registrars have been notified in writing by Plaintiff have been or will be dismissed from this action, or as to which Plaintiff has withdrawn its request to immediately transfer such domain names. To the extent the registrars do not assist in changing the registrars of record for the domains under their respective control within one business day of receipt of this Order, the top-level domain (TLD) registries for the E-commerce Store Names or their administrators, including backend registry operators or administrators, within five business days of receipt of this Order, shall change, or assist in changing, the registrar of record for the E-commerce Store Names to a holding account with the New Registrar, excepting any such domain names which such registries have been notified in writing by Plaintiff have been or will be dismissed from this action or as to which Plaintiff has withdrawn its request to immediately transfer such domain names. Upon the change of the registrar of record for the E-commerce Store Names the New Registrar will maintain access to the E-commerce Store Names in trust for the Court during the pendency of this action. Additionally, the New Registrar shall immediately institute a temporary 302 domain name redirection which will automatically redirect any visitor to the E-commerce Store Names to the following Uniform Resource Locator (“URL”) <http://servingnotice.com/Qa1j0d/index.html>, whereon copies of the Complaint, this Order, and all other documents on file in this action shall be displayed. Alternatively, the New Registrar may update the Domain Name System (“DNS”) data it maintains for the E-commerce Store Names, which link the domain names to the IP addresses where their associated websites are hosted, to 45.63.17.51, which will cause the domain names to resolve to the website where copies of the Complaint, this Order, and all other documents on file in this action shall be displayed. After the New Registrar has effected this change, the E-commerce Store Names shall be placed on lock status by the New Registrar, preventing the modification or deletion of the domains by the New Registrar or Defendant;

(8) After transfer as described in Paragraph 7, supra, Plaintiff may upload new files to the Intermediary E-commerce Store Names for the purpose of preventing further redirections and identifying all the e-commerce stores used by Defendant in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing Omega-branded goods that reroute to the payment Intermediary E-commerce Store Names;

(9) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendant and all financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms, including but not limited to, PayPal, Inc. (“PayPal”), and their related companies and affiliates shall (i) immediately identify all financial accounts and/or sub-accounts associated with the Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names, financial accounts, Merchant IDs, Merchant Names, WhatsApp telephone numbers, and/or the e-mail addresses identified on Schedule “A” hereto, as well as any other related accounts of the same customer(s); (ii) identify all other accounts which transfer funds into the same financial institution account(s) or any of the other financial accounts subject to this Order; (iii) restrain the transfer of all funds, as opposed to ongoing account activity, held or received for their benefit or to be transferred into their respective financial accounts, and any other financial accounts tied thereto; and (iv) divert those restrained funds to a holding account for the trust of the Court;

(10) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendant and all financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms, including but not limited to, PayPal, and their related companies and affiliates, shall further, within five business days of receiving notice of this Order, provide the Plaintiff’s counsel with all data that details (i) an accounting of the total funds restrained and identify the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which the restrained funds are related to, and (ii) the account transactions related to all funds transmitted into the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which have been restrained. Such restraining of the funds and the disclosure of the related financial institution account information shall be made without notice to the account owners or the financial institutions until after those accounts are restrained. No funds restrained by this Order shall be transferred or surrendered by any financial institution, payment processor, bank, escrow service, money transmitter, or marketplace website, including but not limited to, PayPal, and their related companies and affiliates, for any purpose (other than pursuant to a purchase refund chargeback made by a consumer) without the express authorization of this Court;

(11) Defendant or financial institution account holder subject to this Order may petition the Court to modify the asset restraint set out in this Order;

(12) This Order shall apply to the E-commerce Store Names, associated e-commerce stores, private messaging accounts, and financial accounts, and any other e-commerce store names, seller identification names, private messaging accounts, or financial accounts which are being used by Defendant for the purpose of counterfeiting the Omega Marks at issue in this action and/or unfairly competing with the Plaintiff;

(13) As a matter of law, this Order shall no longer apply to Defendant or associated e-commerce store dismissed from this action or as to which Plaintiff has withdrawn its request for a temporary restraining order;

(14) Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116(d)(5)(D) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(c), Plaintiff shall post a bond in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00), as payment of damages to which Defendant may be entitled for a wrongful injunction or restraint, during the pendency of this action, or until further Order of the Court. In the Court's discretion, the bond may be subject to increase should an application be made in the interest of justice;

(15) After Plaintiff's counsel has received confirmation from the financial institution regarding the funds restrained as directed herein, Plaintiff shall serve a copy of the Complaint, the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, and this Order, on Defendant by e-mail and/or online contact form or other means of electronic contact provided on the e-commerce stores and websites operating under the respective E-commerce Store Names, or by providing a copy of this Order by e-mail to the registrar of record for each of the E-commerce Store Names so that the registrar, in turn, notifies Defendant of the Order, or by other means reasonably calculated to give notice which is permitted by the Court. In addition, Plaintiff shall post copies of the Complaint, the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, this Order, as well as all other documents filed in this action on the website located at <http://servingnotice.com/Qalj0d/index.html> and shall provide the address to the website to Defendant via e-mail/online contact form, and such notice so given shall be deemed good and sufficient service thereof. Plaintiff shall continue to provide notice of these proceedings and copies of the documents on file in this matter to the Defendant by regularly updating the website located at <http://servingnotice.com/Qa1j0d/index.html> or by other means reasonably calculated to give notice which is permitted by the Court;

(16) Additionally, for the purpose of providing additional notice of this proceeding, and all other pleadings, orders, and documents filed herein, the owners, operators and/or administrators of the e-commerce stores, and/or financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, and marketplace platforms, including but not limited to, PayPal, and their related companies and affiliates, shall, at Plaintiff's request, provide Plaintiff's counsel with any e-mail address known to be associated with Defendant's E-commerce Store Names;

(17) This Order shall remain in effect for twenty-eight (28) days after entry of this Order, or until such further dates as set by the Court or stipulated to by the parties. Though Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(b), requires that entry of a Temporary Restraining Order may not exceed fourteen (14) days, the Court finds good cause exists to extend the Order given the nature of the Defendant's unknown whereabouts and illicit Internet activity described herein.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Miami, Florida, this 4 day of June 2025.
