UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 23-60409-CIV-SINGHAL

OMEGA SA,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE INDIVIDUALS, BUSINESS ENTITIES AND UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE "A,"

Defendants.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

THIS CAUSE is before the Court on Plaintiff's Application for Entry of Preliminary Injunction (the "Application") (DE [6]). Plaintiff, Omega SA ("Omega" or "Plaintiff"), moves for entry of a preliminary injunction against Defendants, the Individuals, Business Entities, and Unincorporated Associations Identified on Schedule "A" and for entry of an order restraining the financial accounts used by Defendants under 15 U.S.C. § 1116, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), and the Court's inherent authority.

The Court convened a hearing on May 3, 2023, at which only counsel for Plaintiff was present and available to present evidence supporting the Application. To date, no Defendant has formally appeared in this action. Because Plaintiff has satisfied the requirements for the issuance of a preliminary injunction, the Court will now grant Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary Injunction.

See Declaration of Antoine Haller in Support of Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary Injunction ("Haller Decl.") ¶ 4 (DE [6-2]); see also United States Trademark Registrations of the Omega Marks at issue attached as Composite Exhibit 1 to the Amended Complaint (DE [19-1]). The Omega Marks are used in connection with the manufacture and distribution of high-quality goods in the categories identified above. See Haller Decl. ¶ 4 (DE [6-2]).

Defendants, by operating Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the seller names identified on Schedule "A" ("E-commerce Store Names"), have advertised, promoted, offered for sale, or sold goods bearing and/or using what Plaintiff has determined to be counterfeits, infringements, reproductions and/or colorable imitations of the Omega Marks. See Haller Decl. ¶¶ 16–18 (DE [6-2]); Decl. of Virgilio Gigante in Support of Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary Injunction ("Gigante Decl.") ¶¶ 2–3 (DE [6-3]); Declaration of Kathleen Burns in Support of Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary Injunction ("Burns Decl.") ¶ 4 (DE [6-5]); Burns Decl. Comp. Ex. 1 (DE [6-6] through [6-8]).

Although each Defendant may not copy and infringe each of the Omega Marks for each category of goods protected, Plaintiff has submitted sufficient evidence showing each Defendant has infringed, at least, one or more of the Omega Marks. See Haller Decl. ¶¶ 16–18 (DE [6-2]); Burns Decl. Comp. Ex. 1 (DE [6-6] through [6-8]). Defendants are not now, nor have they ever been, authorized or licensed to use, reproduce, or make counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of the Omega Marks. See Haller Decl. ¶¶ 14–17 (DE [6-2]).

Plaintiff's counsel retained Invisible Inc ("Invisible"), a licensed private investigation firm, to investigate the promotion and sale of counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's branded products by Defendants and to determine the available payment account data for receipt of funds paid to Defendants for the sale of counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's branded merchandise through the E-commerce Store Names. See Haller Decl. ¶ 15 (DE [6-2]);

Gigante Decl. ¶ 2 (DE [6-3]); Burns Decl. ¶ 3 (DE [6-5]). Invisible accessed the e-commerce stores operating under Defendants' E-commerce Store Names, placed orders from each Defendant for the purchase of various products, all bearing or using counterfeits of one or more of the Omega Marks and requested each product be shipped to the Southern District of Florida. See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 (DE [6-5]). Each order was processed entirely online and following the submission of the orders, Invisible received information for finalizing payment[2] for the products ordered from Defendants to their respective PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal") accounts, which are identified on Schedule "A" hereto.[3] (Id.) At the conclusion of the process, the detailed web page captures and images of Plaintiff's branded products ordered by Invisible via each Defendants' E-commerce Store Names were sent to Plaintiff's representative for inspection. See Haller Decl. ¶ 16 (DE [6-2]); Gigante Decl. ¶ 2 (DE [6-3]); Burns Decl. ¶ 4 (DE [6-5]). Plaintiff's representative reviewed and visually inspected the Omega branded goods Invisible ordered by reviewing the e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names, or the detailed web page captures and images of the items bearing the Omega Marks, and determined the products were non-genuine, unauthorized versions of Plaintiff's goods. See Haller Decl. ¶¶ 17–18 (DE [6-2]).

On March 2, 2023, Plaintiff filed its Complaint (DE [1]), and thereafter its Amended Complaint on April 19, 2023 (DE [19]), against Defendants for federal trademark counterfeiting and infringement, false designation of origin, common law unfair

[2] Invisible did not transmit the funds to finalize the sale for the orders from some of the Defendants so as to avoid funding Defendants' coffers. See Gigante Decl. ¶ 2, n. 1 (DE 6-2]); Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.1 (DE [6-5]).

[3] Additional contact e-mail addresses for Defendants are also identified on Schedule "A" hereto. See Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.2 (DE [6-5]).

competition, and common law trademark infringement. On March 6, 2023, Plaintiff filed its Ex Parte Application for Entry of Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, and Order Restraining Transfer of Assets (DE [6]). On March 23, 2023, this Court issued a Sealed Order Granting Ex Parte Application for Entry of Temporary Restraining Order ("the TRO") (DE [12]) and temporarily restrained Defendants from infringing the Omega Marks at issue. In accordance with the Court's March 23, 2023, TRO, Plaintiff properly served Defendants with a copy of the Amended Complaint, all filings in this matter, and the Court's March 23, 2023, Order. See (DE [20], [21], [22]). On May 3, 2023, the Court conducted a hearing on Plaintiff's Application, at which only counsel for Plaintiff was in attendance.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

To obtain a preliminary injunction, a party must demonstrate "(1) a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) that irreparable injury will be suffered if the relief is not granted; (3) that the threatened injury outweighs the harm the relief would inflict on the non-movant; and (4) that the entry of the relief would serve the public interest." Schiavo ex. rel Schindler v. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 1225–26 (11th Cir. 2005); see also Levi Strauss & Co. v. Sunrise Int'l. Trading Inc., 51 F.3d 982, 985 (11th Cir. 1995) (applying the test to a preliminary injunction in a Lanham Act case).

III. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The declarations Plaintiff submitted in support of its Application support the following conclusions of law:

A. Plaintiff has a strong probability of proving at trial that consumers are likely to be confused by Defendants' advertisement, promotion, sale, offer for sale, and/or distribution of goods bearing and/or using counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of the Omega Marks, and that the products Defendants are selling and promoting for sale are copies of Plaintiff's products that bear or use copies of the Omega Marks.

B. Because of the infringement of the Omega Marks, Plaintiff is likely to suffer immediate and irreparable injury if a preliminary injunction is not granted. The following specific facts, as set forth in Plaintiff's Amended Complaint, Application, and accompanying declarations, demonstrate that immediate and irreparable loss, damage, and injury will result to Plaintiff and to consumers because it is more likely true than not that:

1. Defendants own or control e-commerce stores operating under their e-commerce store names that advertise, promote, offer for sale, and sell products bearing and/or using counterfeit and infringing trademarks in violation of Plaintiff's rights; and

2. There is good cause to believe that more counterfeit and infringing products bearing and/or using Plaintiff's trademarks will appear in the marketplace; consumers are likely to be misled, confused, or disappointed by the quality of these products; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its genuine products.

C. The balance of potential harm to Defendants in restraining their trade in counterfeit and infringing branded goods if a preliminary injunction is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its reputation, and its goodwill as a manufacturer and distributor of quality products, if such relief is not issued.

D. The public interest favors issuance of the preliminary injunction to protect Plaintiff's trademark interests and protect the public from being defrauded by the palming off of counterfeit and infringing goods as Plaintiff's genuine goods.

E. Under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), Plaintiff may be entitled to recover, as an equitable remedy, the illegal profits gained through Defendants' distribution and sales of goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of the Omega Marks. See Reebok Int'l, Ltd. v. Marnatech Enters., Inc., 970 F.2d 552, 559 (9th Cir. 1992) ("An accounting of profits under § 1117(a) is not synonymous with an award of monetary damages: '[a]n accounting for profits . . . is an equitable remedy subject to the principles of equity.'" (alteration and omission in original) (quoting Fuller Brush Prods. Co. v. Fuller Brush Co., 299 F.2d 772, 777 (7th Cir. 1962))).

F. Requesting equitable relief "invokes the district court's inherent equitable powers to order preliminary relief, including an asset freeze, in order to assure the availability of permanent relief." Levi Strauss & Co. v. Sunrise Int'l Trading Inc, 51 F.3d 982, 987 (11th Cir. 1995) (citing Fed. Trade Comm'n v. U.S. Oil & Gas Corp., 748 F.2d 1431, 1433-34 (11th Cir. 1984)).

G. In light of the inherently deceptive nature of the counterfeiting business, and the likelihood that Defendants have violated federal trademark laws, Plaintiff has good reason to believe Defendants will hide or transfer their ill-gotten assets beyond the jurisdiction of this Court unless those assets are restrained.

Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary Injunction (DE [6]) is GRANTED, according to the terms set forth below:

(1) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order are hereby restrained and enjoined until further Court order as follows:

a. From manufacturing, importing, advertising, promoting, offering to sell, selling, distributing, or transferring any products bearing and/or using the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks, other than those actually manufactured or distributed by Plaintiff; and

b. From secreting, concealing, destroying, selling off, transferring, or otherwise disposing of: (i) any products, not manufactured or distributed by Plaintiff bearing and/or using the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks; (ii) any evidence relating to the manufacture, importation, sale, offer for sale, distribution, or transfer of any products bearing and/or using the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks; or (iii) any assets or other financial accounts subject to this Order, including inventory assets, in the actual or constructive possession of, or owned, controlled, or held by, or subject to access by, any Defendant, including, but not limited to, any assets held by or on behalf of any Defendant.

(2) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue, until further Order of this Court, the use of the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks, on or in connection with all e-commerce stores owned and operated, or controlled by them, including the e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names;

(3) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue, until further Order of this Court, the use of the Omega Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks, within domain name extensions, metatags or other markers within website source code, from use on any webpage (including as the title of any web page), from any advertising links to other websites, from search engines' databases or cache memory, and any other form of use of such terms that are visible to a computer user or serves to direct computer searches to e-commerce stores registered, owned, or operated by each Defendant, including the e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names;

(4) Each Defendant shall continue to preserve copies of all computer files relating to the use of any of the e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names and shall take all steps necessary to retrieve computer files relating to the use of the e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names that may have been deleted before the entry of this Order;

(5) Upon Plaintiff's request, the privacy protection service for any of the E-commerce Store Names for which the registrant uses such privacy protection service to conceal the registrant's identity and contact information is ordered to disclose to Plaintiff, to the extent not already done, the true identities and contact information of those registrants;

(6) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendants and all financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms, including but not limited to, PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal"), Stripe, Inc. ("Stripe"), and their related companies and affiliates, shall, to the extent not already done, (i) immediately, identify all financial accounts and/or sub-accounts, associated with the e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names, the payment accounts, payees, merchant identification, and/or the e-mail addresses identified on Schedule "A" hereto, as well as any other accounts of the same customer(s); (ii) identify all other accounts which transfer funds into the same financial institution account(s) or any of the other financial accounts subject to this Order; (iii) restrain the transfer of all funds, as opposed to ongoing account activity, held or received for their benefit or to be transferred into their respective financial accounts, and any other financial accounts tied thereto; and (iv) immediately divert those restrained funds to a holding account for the trust of the Court;

(7) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendants and all financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms, including but not limited to, PayPal, Stripe, and their related companies and affiliates, shall further, to the extent not already done, within five business days of receiving notice of this Order, provide Plaintiff's counsel with all data that details (i) an accounting of the total funds restrained and identify the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which the restrained funds are related to, and (ii) the account transactions related to all funds transmitted into the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which have been restrained. No funds restrained by this Order shall be transferred or surrendered by any financial institution, payment processor, bank, escrow service, money transmitter, or marketplace website, including but not limited to, PayPal, Stripe, and their related companies and affiliates for any purpose (other than in accordance with a chargeback made under their security interest in the funds) without the express authorization of this Court;

(8) Any Defendant or financial institution account holder subject to this Order may petition the Court to modify the asset restraint set out in this Order;

(9) This Order shall apply to the E-commerce Store Names, associated e-commerce stores, and any other domain names, websites, e-commerce stores, or financial accounts that are being used by Defendants for counterfeiting the Omega Marks at issue in this action and/or unfairly competing with Plaintiff;

(10) As a matter of law, this Order shall no longer apply to any Defendant or associated e-commerce store dismissed from this action or as to which Plaintiff has withdrawn its request for a preliminary injunction; and

(11) In accordance with 15 U.S.C. § 1116(d)(5)(D) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(c), Plaintiff shall maintain its previously posted bond in the amount of $10,000.00 as payment of damages to which Defendants may be entitled for a wrongful injunction or restraint, during the pendency of this action, or until further Court order. In the Court's discretion, the bond may be subject to increase should an application be made in the interest of justice.

(12) Additionally, for the purpose of providing additional notice of this proceeding, and all other pleadings, orders, and documents filed herein, the owners, operators and/or administrators of the marketplace websites and/or financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, and marketplace platforms, including but not limited to PayPal, Stripe, and their related companies and affiliates shall, to the extent not already done, at Plaintiff's request, provide Plaintiff's counsel with any e-mail address known to be associated with Defendants' respective E-commerce Store Names;

(13) This Order shall remain in effect during the pendency of this action or until such further dates as set by the Court or stipulated by the parties.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, this 8th day of May, 2023.
